ASSEMBLY NEWS

Vol. XXXIX

Season, 1939

Number 1

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Greetings and good wishes to all members and friends of the Congregational Summer Assembly. These words are written on the first day of Spring and for this year, at least, the season does not belie the calendar. The merry chirp of an occasional early robin, the hint of green in the still rather dingy grass of the university campus, the thrusting tips of a few bold crocuses and tulips; all these signs that Winter has passed turn our thoughts to Pilgrim and to the joy of another summer there.

The management and your various committees have been hard at work during past weeks, insuring for you a summer that will be fully as delightful as those that have gone before. Plans for speakers, music, sports, religious education, and the numerous other activities which so many of us enjoy, have been under way for some time. To those who have given so freely of their time and thought to make these things possible, our hearty thanks are due. This splendid spirit of close cooperation is the thing which has created the Pilgrim that we all love.

In order that this spirit of cooperation may spread even wider, the committee on buildings and grounds has worked out a thoughtful revision of those friendly rules which each of us will gladly observe in order to insure the comfort and happiness of all. These will be printed in the Bulletin and copies will be provided so that one may be posted in each cottage. Thus, those new-comers, whom we are always glad to welcome, may quickly acquaint themselves with the habits and customs which have grown up as part of the Pilgrim spirit.

In just a few short weeks we will be greeting each other on the shores of Crystal Lake.

ZENS L. SMITH.

WOMAN'S ASSOCIATION

Dear Friends:

In your home and in mine there is sure to be someone who has already figured just how many days it is until we can reach the Assembly. And from the moment of that announcement there are new plans and arrangements for the best summer we ever hope to have and a new zest and anticipation of the choice life we can have there together.

After last summer's magic performance of pulling both a diving platform and a grand piano out of the Woman's Association hat, it would seem that there could not be much more to do, but there is every hope for an unusually happy fellowship among the greater group of women on the Assembly Grounds and in the vicinity.

Tuesday Teas will continue not only as the pleasant function they have been in other years, but as a place in which the best ideas that have worked out in our home activities may be shared with each other. One of the events will be a Treasure Tea and if you have a treasure you can bring or a hobby that can be easily displayed, please bring it and tell us about it.

The Nature trips will continue to be arranged by Miss Alma Prucha. We hope she will include as a good example of her powers as a bird tour guide another view of the snowy egret spreading its six foot span of white over the group at Arcadia Swamp. That happened last year with the verification of her description by the state ornithologist. And in another field we hope that the enchantments that only Dr. Waterman's tours can furnish will be available to us again.

With best wishes to each of you,

Cordially yours,

HELEN JELINEK BELKNAP.

 AN APPRECIATION

The Congregational Assembly News, which is our medium for making known what we have to offer at Crystal Lake, is made possible by the coöperation of the Frankfort merchants whose advertisements pay the larger part of the expense of the publication. You are urged to patronize our advertisers whenever possible and thus show our appreciation of their valuable assistance.

CRYSTAL LAKE A'HOY!

With Easter just around the corner, can summer at Crystal be very far away? The Benzie County Patriot brings news that "a strong easterly wind carried out to the lake the ice which has covered Betsie Bay. Sunshine called many out into the woods to look for arbutus." "Beautiful sunsets have begun to make their regular appearance." The Assembly woods will soon be carpeted with Hepatica, Spring Beauty, Arbutus and Trillium. As the rain and warmth of April melt away the heaps of ice on the breakwater the leaves come slowly out on our beautiful trees decorating our Assembly grounds for a horde of visitors from the south.

For many years the call of the land of the Betsie has been heard by vacationists young and old. None who have answered can forget the joys of a vacation at Pilgrim, where we breathe cool washed air, swim in the clear water of Crystal Lake or bask on wide sandy beaches. Those who would be active every minute find friends with whom to play tennis, golf and baseball. Trained athletic and music directors supervise the program for children with hikes, games in the community room and entertainments at the auditorium. Church and Sunday School services provide a religious atmosphere conducive to the best appreciation of God's great out of doors. Though far from home and close to nature a surprising number of modern conveniences are available. Electricity, running water and modern plumbing may be found in the Lodge and cottages. The Assembly maintains telephone, telegraph (Western Union) and post office facilities. Meals at the Assembly Dining Hall are a delight to the whole family. The interesting city of Frankfort, only two and one-half miles away on the cement highway, gives us all the urban delights of our home city with additional novelties such as large steamships, car ferries and visiting yachts. Merchants in Frankfort seem like old friends, they are so reliable and accommodating. Jack Evans will run the Assembly store, assuring us good service. Won't we have fun with all this between Crystal Lake and Lake Michigan, only half a mile apart and both washing the shores of the Assembly.

PILGRIM CALLS

Snow falls on these wet Chicago pavements this Monday after Easter, in enormous mushy flakes that melt and splash as they hit. It's an appropriate setting in which to think of Pilgrim with its cool summer comfort and its recreative peace.

In the busy rounds of the city pastorate one has time to scan the headlines: "Stop Hitler Bloc Forming"; "The Fuehrer Turns to Danzig"; "Il Duce Occupies Albania"; Nations, including our own, bristle with new accoutrement, demanding more at each sitting of appropriations bodies. Roosevelt leaving Warm Springs waves the people goodbye saying, "I'll see you later, if there's not a war." Harold Laski just back from Europe is not so conditional about it, "There will be general war by June," he declares.

The past twenty years have produced many threats and scares and many postponements of the dread day. But we are never quite free from the ominous expecttancy. Maybe at last the scare-mongers will be right—"by June"?

It isn't a remote possibility that the next Pilgrim Assembly will gather to the overtones of armed conflict. It isn't at all likely that the world, by then, will have settled down to its hoped for thousand years peace.

Let us remember that places like Pilgrim are the local habitation for the values of concord. By the birch-bordered banks of Crystal Lake, and down the woodlands falling away from Michigan bluffs, those who foregather are privileged not only to find physical rest and surcease from exacting routines, but to absorb from nature and from the God who made it all those high spiritual worths that the world needs now.

The beauty of the place makes vivid contrast with war's hideousness. The peace one finds in the forest, on the dunes or by the lake is something that the world, torn by conflict, would do well to seek. And there, in contrast with the feverishness of men and nations, we feel the wisdom of the long-drawn patience of nature. How long it takes God to make a tree! Maybe that's the reason only He can do it. Man is so restless, all too urgent, seeking overnight to "shatter the sorry scheme of things to bits and mold it nearer to the heart's desire." And against the driving selfishness of society, how charitable are the woods, living in luxury but always willing to die. There's many a sermon on vicariousness in one of those fallen giants half turned to earth and gently mounded over, dying that the forest might live and rejoice. And men must somehow find that spirit and make it his own before "the war-drums throb no longer and the battle-flags are furled."

And at Pilgrim we also find that genuine camaraderie of which the human spirit is capable when not directed toward exploitation. No one at Pilgrim is seeking gain at another's expense; nor muscling in on another's preserves, nor competing with the rest for reward. Is it too much to hope for if we dream of a world set free from conquest and conflict and competitive rivalries? too sanguine to think that a world made by God may sometime learn to receive His grace, mercy and His peace?

GEORGE M. GIBSON.

PROGRAM COMMITTEE

The program committee met near the close of the season last summer. They reviewed and evaluated the program of the season. Plans were made for the new year. The chairman offered his services to carry out the wishes of the group if they would formulate the preachers they desired to hear and the program as they wished to have it formulated.

Several decisions were made. The services of Mrs. Niemann were considered to be a great asset to the Assembly. The wish was expressed that she be employed for another year and this arrangement has been consummated. It was felt that the high spot of the year in the spiritual life of the Assembly had been the communion service conducted in the evening at the heart of the season by Dr. Charles M. Sheldon with the co-operation of the churches of Frankfort. Dr. Sheldon has consented to lead this service for us another year.

The committee wished that we might be led off in our first church service of the season by Dr. Frank G. Smith and he has consented to take this assignment.

There was a desire that a number of new preachers might be heard in our services during the next season. A list of preachers was worked out and the chairman is writing to them in the order of preference expressed by the committee. It does not seem wise to announce these preachers until the list has been completed. Three of the coveted preachers have thus far been unable to accept our invitation. We are working on a list of the finest preachers in the Middle West. We are confident that a strong spiritual leadership will be enrolled within a month.

Frankfort deserves the best and we are attempting to see that Frankfort gets it.

VERE V. LOPER,
Chairman.

Vere V. Loper

YOUNG PEOPLE'S FORUM

The Young Peoples Forum will again meet from ten to eleven on Sunday mornings throughout the summer. The group is under the leadership of Mrs. Van Tuyl who made the meetings very interesting last year. The theme chosen for this year is "Christ in everyday living." There will be guest speakers at a number of the meetings, and time will also be provided for free discussion. The place where the Forum will meet this year has not been decided upon as yet, and any suggestions would be appreciated.

Besides the weekly Sunday meetings, the forum is going to try something new this summer. Tentative plans have been made for a conference, a week of religious and social activities for all young people.

JANET KITTREDGE.

PILGRIM POST OFFICE AND TELEGRAPH STATION

All mail and Western Union telegrams to the Congregational Assembly should be addressed to Pilgrim, Benzie County, Michigan. Express and freight should always be addressed to Frankfort, Michigan. All classes of mail properly addressed arrive at the Assembly grounds without delay. The Pilgrim Post Office will reopen June 15th. Boxes will be available at a nominal charge. Letters and telegrams sent from the Pilgrim stations assist in maintaining those offices. Previous to June 15th mail addressed to Pilgrim will be held at Frankfort.

GARAGES

Cottagers who do not have garages can house their cars in the closed garages back of the Lodge or at the foot of the hill near Lake Michigan. Also back of the Lodge is a roofed open-end garage that will shelter a number of cars. The rates are: closed garage, $4.00 per month, $6.00 per season; open garage, $2.50 per month, $4.50 per season. It is advisable to write the manager in advance to secure reservations for space in the garages.

In parking on any of the Assembly roads you are admonished to use great care that your car is parked in such a way as not to impede traffic nor invite accident. We hope that all will cooperate in the finest way in this very difficult question.

MUSIC AND ENTERTAINMENT

The coming year at the Assembly has the usual prospect of a fine summer for us all—and as usual we are clamoring for July to hurry up and get here.

The activities I plan are in the embryo just now. I have given the entertainment program considerable thought through the winter and am formulating an interesting program of plays, musicals, etc., in which I hope you will all find your places as active participants.

It has been truly said, we get out of any enterprise what we put into it, and this certainly pertains to our Assembly since we are a community unto ourselves. And so if you will come this year with that thought in mind we should have the most successful year, without a doubt, we have ever enjoyed.

I am trying to find something entirely different from our former programs and that is somewhat difficult. I have read at least one hundred operettas and plays and still haven't found just what I'm looking for.

I think we will use a younger group in the operetta, as we did last year. I have several that are wonderful and that I know you will enjoy.

Mr. Niemann had "Schnitzel Bank" sent to Prof. Weekes this winter so he can prepare for a community sing with that as the nucleus.

Our plays several are reading, but so far have not definitely decided on one, but we will have a very fine program all outlined in another week or so.

Here's hoping we have the most outstanding summer in every sense of the word we have ever had.

MARY P. NIEMANN.

BENEFIT BRIDGE

Mrs. C. H. Howell and Mrs. F. B. Hancock will be hostesses at a benefit Dessert Bridge and other games at their cottage on Crystal Lake at 1:15 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, July 11th.

THE ATHLETIC COMMITTEE

Spring fever—and a consuming desire to head the old bus north to Frankfort and the C. S. A., hits us with the first warm days. Visions of the beach, the tennis courts, the golf course, the ball diamond, and the sapphire blue lake appear before us, coincident with the realization that summer and Frankfort are but two short months away. The Athletic Committee promises an even more ambitious program than was realized last summer.

We plan a bang board at the north end of the Crystal Lake Court. This will enable our athletic director to take his tennis classes off of the clay courts, and handle larger groups. It will likewise increase the playability of the court. New games will be introduced, and many improvements made in the grounds and equipment.

Last, but far from least, and most important of all, we announce with pleasure and pride, that Jim Rogers, our athletic director of the past two years, will again be with us, together with his popular and cooperative assistant, Bill Prescott. The Athletic Committee knows this will be wonderful news to all youngsters from six to sixty interested in athletics.

GRANT H. BROWN,
Chairman.

White Birches on Crystal Lake

THE ASSEMBLY PRIVILEGE TICKET

It is required that all persons residing on the grounds, or using the facilities of the Assembly, provide themselves with Assembly Privilege Tickets. The rates are as follows:

Family season ticket.....	$10.00
Individual season ticket.....	5.00
Family, five weeks.....	8.00
Individual, five weeks.....	4.00
Family, one week.....	2.50
Individual, one week.....	1.25

The family includes parents, children who are not self-supporting and servants. Self-supporting children and guests are counted as individuals, subject to the above rates, whether quartered in the Lodge, in cottages or entertained in families, and should be provided with tickets. Neither tickets nor passes are required for Sundays.

The price that we pay for this ticket is very small indeed and is required of us in return for the Community Life that we enjoy here together. We have telephone service; groceries, milk, ice cream, fruit, vegetables, etc., available at the Pavilion; ice; entertainments, lectures; Sunday services at the Auditorium; tennis courts, ball grounds, bathing beaches, supervision of athletics and playgrounds; in fact, everything that ministers to the comfort of a well organized community.

The Assembly is not run for profit. Every cent that we get from you, and more, we give back in service. The rate is far lower than that at any summer assembly we know of that is equally equipped and organized.

The roads in the Assembly grounds are the property of the Assembly and must be maintained at the expense of the Assembly.

In the past we had no road problem, but the coming of the automobile changed this, and the old sand roads, which formerly required little or no attention, now need frequent repairing and improving.

These tickets cover everything except an occasional special entertainment.

Cottage owners are requested to advise renters of the above rates and regulations.

TAXES

Lot owners are advised to write early in December for their tax bill (sending stamp for reply) and thus avoid penalty for delay in remitting.

HOTEL ACCOMMODATIONS

Rooms are available at the Lodge at rates varying from $6 per week for small rooms for one person to $18 per week for the best room for three people. While no rooms with bath are available there are two bath rooms, one on each floor, and an ample supply of hot water is provided. The beds are comfortable, the lounge with its fireplace is very popular, and the spirit of friendliness makes a vacation at the Lodge a real success. Electric lights throughout reduce fire hazard, and flush toilets insure sanitation. The hostess and her assistant who so ably cared for the guests last summer will again be with us.

The dining hall is located in a building separate from the Lodge. It is operated as one of the activities of the Assembly and not for profit. Every effort is made to furnish nourishing meals with only the best of food carefully served.

The following schedule of prices will prevail during the coming season:

Breakfast	$.40
Dinner (except Sunday)....	.60
Supper60
Sunday Dinner75

Meal tickets good for $11.00 in meals at the rates above will be sold for $10.00 to meet the convenience of those people who do not care to take all of their meals at the Dining Hall.

The rates for children under seven years of age are:

Breakfast	$.25
Dinner30
Supper30
Sunday Dinner40

Michigan's 3% sales tax added to above prices.

There will be no special weekly rates nor discounts for extended patronage of the Dining Hall or Lodge.

All persons rooming at the Lodge are expected to board at the Dining Hall.

FREE CIRCULATING LIBRARY

There are a number of books at the Lodge and in the Community Room. These are available to all patrons of the Assembly free and may be had upon application at the office. It is the desire of the management that this library be enlarged each year. If you have books in your private collection which are no longer of service to you, please send them by express or mail to Congregational Assembly, Frankfort, Mich. Books for children are in great demand.

White Birches at Pilgrim

ASSEMBLY STORE

This will notify the patrons of the Assembly that the grocery store will open the first of the season, under new management. A full stock of standard goods and fresh vegetables will be carried at reasonable prices.

I assure all customers of courteous and satisfactory service. I will appreciate your patronage.

JACK EVANS.

LET US REMIND YOU—

That the first place to go on arrival on the grounds is to the office at the Community House. Registration of both your home and cottage addresses will be a distinct convenience both to you and the management.

That the next thing to do is to buy an ASSEMBLY PRIVILEGE TICKET.

That this ticket is needed by everyone, even those living in Wildwood and Crystalia, who share in the privileges of the grounds in their use of the roads and paths, and in other accommodations.

That the Assembly has stalls in its garage to rent at a reasonable price.

That the little store in the pavilion carries almost anything you need to eat.

That the Frankfort merchants are supplied with good things of all sorts. They are friendly and accommodating. Give them a fair share of your patronage. See our advertisers for anything you may need.

That the Rules and Regulations are designed to protect what we go to Frankfort for. Read them and be a good citizen.

That if you wish to rent a cottage, you will need to write early to the manager or to those advertising in these columns.

That rooms may be had at the Lodge, or at a few cottages. The Manager can give information.

That the Assembly still has some good lots for sale. The Secretary has the price list.

That those who go to Frankfort seek rest as well as a good time and wish quiet between the hours of 10 p. m. and 7 a. m.

That the driftwood on Michigan Beach is the joy of beach parties. If not wasted there is enough for all.

That all cars and trucks are expected to avoid the roads near the auditorium on Sunday mornings between 10 and 12:30. Every failure to observe this regulation is a serious disturbance of the services.

Crystalia Golf Course

CRYSTALIA GOLF COURSE

Recently I was asked what I, as a young man, thought about our Crystalia Golf Course. Bearing in mind that last year's Assembly News carried pertinent reflections by an Old Timer, I am moved to break out with my enthusiasm as a representative of the younger group.

Before the slopes grew grassy golf turf, I was wont to roam over the old Larson farm during summers at the Assembly. I hardly believe that I was in a position at the time to know what economic value the place had as a farm, but it was a location of my youthful admiration. Returning to the Assembly some years later, I marveled at its enhancement. A golf course! Why hadn't someone thought of it sooner?

Richard Haliburton climbed an Alpine peak and realized an ambition to expectorate a mile. Not quite possible on Crystalia's first tee, but a more stimulating reaction for me—a feeling that all was right with the world, and I could hit that little white ball a mile. Every fairway and hole presents an adventure. Up hill, down hill, around corners, through the woods. Lakes over there, deep woods all around, birds, flowers in profusion, wild strawberries and raspberries; and all so close to the heart of the Assembly.

Of an early morning I like to shoulder my bag of clubs and stroll through the woods up to the course with its grassy slopes still wet with dew, breathing the freshness of the air and the brightness of the early sun. Whether pursuing my ball in and out of bordering woods or just up hill and down, the drop down the ninth hole finds me raring to repeat and keep out of the woods on the first and third fairways next time. And there is the eighth tee, where a pause brings up that feeling of "I am monarch of all I survey," as I look west over the wide expanse of Lake Michigan with its ever-passing boats and to the north and east see calm blue Crystal Lake, its blueness perhaps studded with white waves on a windy day.

Here is a place of health and happiness, well within my golf budget. Here is a well-groomed golf course, a pleasure to the eye and spirit. All of which says to each and every one of you sojourning at Crystal Lake, come and attain the joy of hours or days on Crystalia Golf Course.

For the Younger Generation.
